

event: An http message to the manager or device with a special field (cmd for devices and action for the manager) for determining the event type.

cmd: An event sent to the device.

action: An event sent to the manager.

query string: everything after the ? in a url this is standard nomenclature for http.

field: the variable being set (ie on the left of the = sign) in a query string.